

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

In the academic community the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. Written or other work which a student submits must be the product of his/her own efforts. Plagiarism, cheating and other forms of academic dishonesty including dishonesty involving computer technology, are prohibited.

In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course are left solely to the discretion of the instructor. In such cases, where the instructor judges a student guilty of academic dishonesty, the instructor is encouraged to report the incident of dishonesty to the Director of the Office of Student Life in order to discern potential patterns of egregious dishonesty.
